Lizi has danced various ethnic styles (West African, Modern, Bellydance, Indian, Afro-Brazilian and Afro-Cuban) for the past 6 years. Her study of dance has been a formal and informal journey that has taken her to many places. Performance has always been an integral thread for Lizi and what inspires her to continue her passion for life. She has performed in Portland, OR, Cazadero, CA, Olympia, WA, Salvador da Bahia, Brazil and most recently, Boulder, CO. She has studied under Donna Oefinger of Portland, Nem Brito of Salvador and world-renowned master dancer and choreographer Rosangela Silvestre. Her approach to teaching is considerate, exhilarating and she brings out the best in her students.
